

Season

WCT will tour two productions for the coming 2011-12 season, which begins the last week of September and runs through the first week of March. The shows can be scheduled to be presented together (on the same day or consecutive days) or they can be presented separately, depending upon each sponsor's needs.

Chicken Little

"The sky is falling!" "The sky is falling!" This musical version of the well-known tale, written by Kevin M. Reese, portrays a silly bunch of characters including Cat, Fox, Wolf, Turkey Lurkey, Henny Penny, and of course, Chicken Little. This group learns some important lessons about jumping to conclusions and the dangers of spreading rumors. They all rejoice in the end with a rousing finale, Great Big Beautiful Sky, when it is learned that only an acorn hit Henny Penny on the head.

Workshops

We offer an excellent selection of educational workshops. Our staff of highly trained actors, most with college degrees in Theatre, can work with students of all ages--from 6 to 106. There's something for everyone! Workshops are a great way for students to utilize creative thinking and strengthen communication skills through theatre games and exercises.

Tom Sawyer

This is an original adaptation of the classic loved by so many. In this version, Mark Twain himself begins the show, and reappears throughout the play to provide the necessary narration. The play follows the rascal Tom Sawyer and his friends - and foes- as they whitewash a fence, play hooky, find a cure for warts, attend their own funeral, get lost in a cave, and solve a murder mystery. It would seem that some things NEVER change: Boys will be boys, still trying to get around rules established by adults - and no self-respecting kid can pass up a good adventure.
